

Environmental Awareness Certificate

Sample Examination Questions

1 Which of the following types of vehicle fuel produces the least air pollution when used?

- A Liquefied petroleum gas
- B Standard petrol
- C Standard diesel
- D Unleaded petrol

2 Which of the following statements best describes climate change?

- A Continual increase in summer temperatures throughout the world
- B Average increase in summer temperatures in the UK
- C Average annual increase in global temperatures
- D Continual increase in annual European temperature

3 Acid rain is rain which is more acidic than normal. What causes this?

- A The increasing acidity of sea water
- B Depletion of the ozone layer
- C The greenhouse effect
- D Gases released by burning fossil fuels

4 Which of the following is an example of an energy source?

- A Bottled gas
- B Lorry
- C Lighting
- D Electricity meter

5 Which of the following water efficiency measures relates to equipment?

- A Fit flow restrictors in pipes
- B Don't leave taps running
- C Collect and use rain water
- D Provide staff training

6 Incinerators can release harmful cancer-causing chemicals into the environment. What are these chemicals called?

- A Dioxins
- B Greenhouse gases
- C CFCs
- D Leachate

Chartered
Institute of Environmental Health

Customer Services

Chartered Institute of Environmental Health
Chadwick Court, 15 Hatfields, London SE1 8DJ

Telephone 020 7827 5800 (Option 1)

Email customerservices@cieh.org Web www.cieh.org/training

© CIEH, 2008
Printed July 2008