

CIEH Level 3 Award in Food Safety Supervision for Manufacturing

How to deliver

This qualification has been developed to benefit anyone working in a supervisory position where food and/or drink is processed or manufactured.

Successful completion of the training programme and assessment will enable candidates to understand the:

- terminology used in respect to supervising food safety procedures
- supervisor's role in ensuring compliance with UK and European food safety legislation
- concept of contamination and the risks it imposes on food safety
- role temperature plays in the control of food safety
- importance of good workplace and equipment design to ensure food safety
- importance of supervising high standards of cleanliness and maintenance in a food manufacturing operation
- importance of good pest control practice
- need for high standards of personal hygiene
- importance of being able to contribute to staff training
- principles of the HACCP system and how a supervisor can contribute to the implementation of a food safety management system in a food manufacturing operation
- importance of auditing procedures.

The training time to cover the syllabus must be at least 18 hours and is typically covered in three days. The time taken to deliver the programme does not include coffee/tea/lunch breaks, revision sessions or 'mock' examinations.

The candidates are assessed by an examination paper consisting of 60 multiple choice questions to be completed in two hours under examination conditions (see 'Procedure for Examination and Assessment' in the Procedures Manual for full details on examination administration). Sample examination questions are included in the registration approval pack. Candidates must participate in at least 80% of the course to be eligible to take the examination.

Candidates who achieve 40–50 correct answers will pass the examination and receive a pass certificate. Those who achieve more than 50 correct answers will receive a merit certificate. The results for the Level 3 Award in Food Safety Supervision for Manufacturing take approximately two weeks to process. Certificates will be sent directly to the centre where the training was delivered.

The CIEH has developed a training pack to help trainers deliver the programme in a structured way. It includes a copy of the course book Food Safety for Supervisors, and a manual entitled Trainers' Notes including a CD containing a PowerPoint presentation.
