Assignment 1

1 Produce a plan for a 25–30-minute micro-teach session.

It must include:

- an indication of how the session relates to a full teaching programme
- the nature of the target group
- the learning outcomes
- a selection of teaching and learning approaches to engage and motivate learners
- an appropriate method of testing that learning has occurred.

2 Deliver the micro-teach session, demonstrating your ability to:

- set the scene for effective learning
- communicate appropriately and effectively with learners
- give feedback to learners.

3 Obtain feedback from your peers and trainer, and complete a self-evaluation to reflect on and evaluate the effectiveness of your micro-teach session.

Checklist

Once you have completed your assignment:

- sign the authentication statement above

Then give this candidate assessment record to your trainer together with:

- your session plan
- four peer assessment forms related to your micro-teach session
- your self-evaluation form (make sure you complete both sides)

Remember to keep a copy of your session plan, the four peer assessment forms and your self-evaluation form.

Marking grid and trainer feedback

(To be completed by the trainer, after the candidate has completed the self-evaluation.

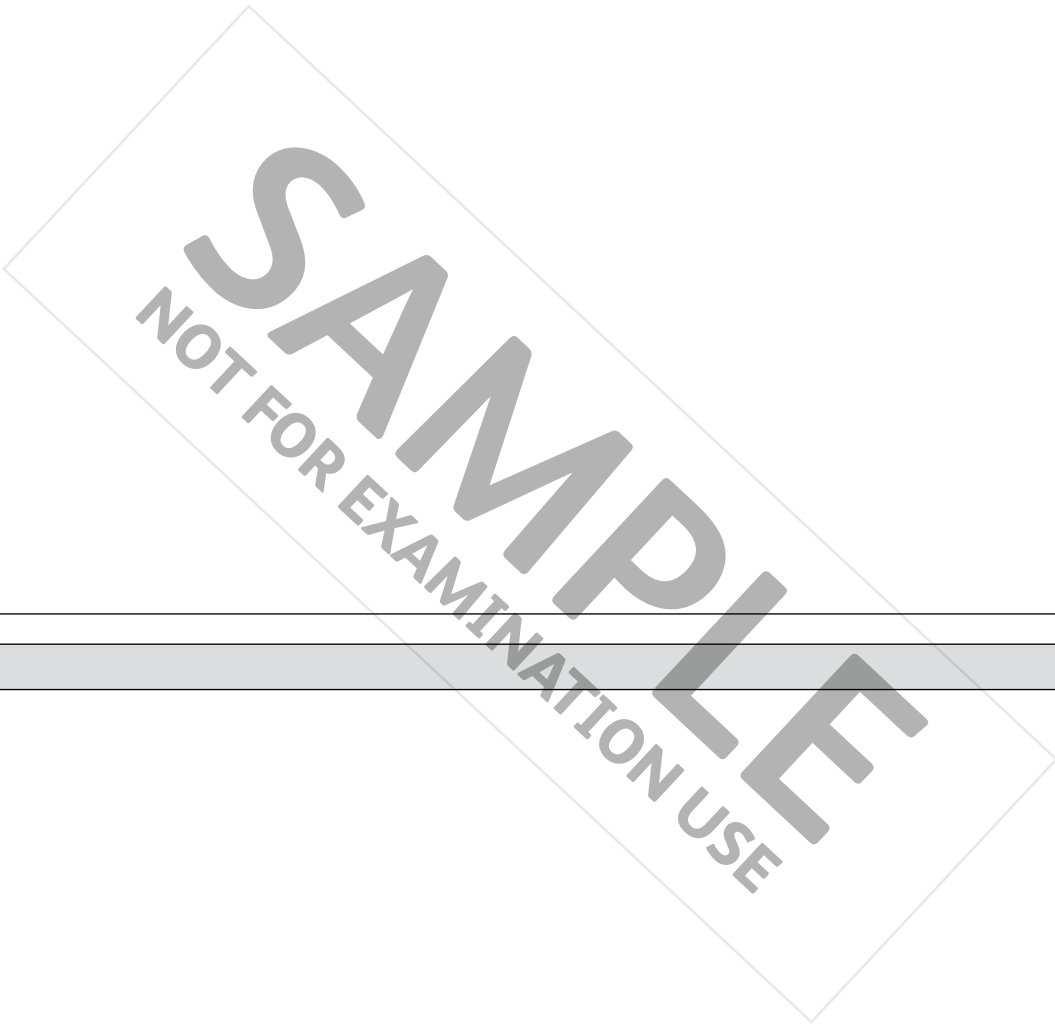

The trainer should provide details in support of the marks awarded. Moderators are unable to verify the marks if the marking grid and trainer's comments are incomplete)
