Food Law Code of Practice – Assessment of Equivalence by CIEH

Domestic: Overseas: -RSPH - H/C in Meat Insp. -EHRB HCFPI Holder -EU EHP (specialising in Food) -IFST HCFPI Holder - Other - EU Official Veterinarian - Meat Training Council - Rest of World EHP (specialising in Food) -Official Veterinarian Other Enquiries to CIEH via Telephone, Email, in person or via referral from FSA. CIEH website to host information on the process to guide enquirers. 几 Proceed to application using pro-forma, fee of £300 paid to CIEH Assessment Stage: Assess submitted 'evidence', Level of qualifications; Content of syllabus; Establish experience (when, where, duties); Check references/testimonials Mapping Stage: Against the 'baseline qualification' as detailed in the Food Law Code of Practice 2015 CIEH decision to grant equivalence? FSA informed with brief summary FSA informed with brief summary explaining the decision explaining the decision Candidate is offered an EHRB 'Certificate of Equivalence'. The Candidate is notified of the EHRB register is amended and a decision. certificate produced. CIEH can advise on Compensatory Measures: -Birmingham University Modules -Practical Food Inspection Course -Supplementary Certificate in FS&C -Other Decision recorded on EHRB Register Candidate has the opportunity to appeal the decision. -See Appeals Procedures FSA informed that candidate has

obtained equivalence