

Chartered Institute of Environmental Health

Sefydliad Siartredig
Iechyd yr
Amgylchedd

CIEH Cymru Wales Region 6 Pack Training Event

‘Health and Safety Regulation – Thinking Outside the Box’

19th September 2017

Media Resource Centre (MRC), Oxford Road, Llandrindod Wells, LD1 6AH

Programme

(The CIEH reserves the right to amend the programme without prior notification)

10.00 - 10.15	Registration and Coffee
10.15	Chair’s welcome and introduction
	Helen Turner (HSE) ‘Dealing with the Controlling Mind of a Company/Organisation’
	Adrian Mansbridge (Pinsent Masons Solicitors) ‘Implications and Impact of the new sentencing guidelines’
12.00 - 12.15	Comfort break
	Jon Hughes (Senior Lecturer – Glyndwr University). Jon is a Human Performance Specialist with a background in personal safety, self defence training and research. His presentation is on Personal Safety with a focus on the importance of an individual’s attributes, skills and training in relation to job requirements.
13.00 – 13.45	Lunch Break
	Kelly Lee, Principal EHO, Newport City Council Case study – Use of HASAWA in a piercing case. Learning points from the investigation, including establishing identity and working with the Police
	Kimberley Cann – Speciality Registrar in Public Health, who will provide an update on the new Public Health Wales Act progress, development of associated guidance, licensing framework, and enforcement expectations focussing on training needs for the Wales provisions for skin piercing and special procedures.
	Questions to speakers and Chair’s closing remarks – 15:45 Finish

It is intended that speakers’ presentations will be placed on the CIEH Cymru web-site as soon as possible following the event.

http://www.cieh-cymruwales.org/region/presentation\_archive.html

CPD certificates will be e-mailed to delegates following submission of feedback, details of which will be emailed to attendees soon after the event.