

CIEH Cymru Wales Region 6 Pack Training Event

“Food in Wales – a Taste of the Future”

29th November 2017

Metropole Hotel, Temple St,
Llandrindod Wells, LD1 5DY

Chartered Institute of Environmental Health
Sefydliad Siartredig
Iechyd yr
Amgylchedd

Programme

(The CIEH reserves the right to amend the programme without prior notification)

10.00 - 10.15	Registration and Coffee
10.15	Chair's welcome and introduction
10.20 -11.00	Dr David H Lloyd-Thomas, Head of Food Policy and Strategy Unit, Welsh Government: Wales' Food and Drink Industry – A Growing Success
11.00 – 11.45	Alice Teague, Head of Policy, FSA Wales: Preparing for the UK's Exit from the EU
11.45 – 12.15	Comfort break
12.15 -13.00	Richard Jacobs, Port Health Manager, Suffolk Coastal Port Health Authority: Brexit and Potential Impacts on Port Health
13.00 – 13.30	Helen O'Loughlin, Chair Welsh Food Microbiological Forum: Round-up of work over the last 12 months and current projects
13.30 – 14.15	Lunch Break
14.15 -15.00	Dr Roy Betts, Head of Microbiology, Campden BRI Group: Developments in Food Microbiology
15.00 -15.45	Andy Holcroft, Grub Kitchen: Edible Insects – From Novelty to Normalcy
15.45	Questions to speakers and Chair's closing remarks – 16:00 Finish

It is intended that speakers' presentations will be placed on the CIEH Cymru web-site as soon as possible following the event.

http://www.cieh-cymruwales.org/region/presentation_archive.html

CPD certificates will be e-mailed to delegates following submission of feedback, details of which will be emailed to attendees soon after the event.