

Basic Electrical Awareness Course

- 09:00 Registration
09:30 Competence, certification, building regulations, incoming supplies and systems, old and new fuse boards, basic protections (ADS), additional protection (RCD,RCBO)
11:00 Break
11:15 Earthing and bonding, ring mains, radials, common issues, lighting, shower circuits, special locations, recap quiz
12:30 Lunch and networking

EICR Awareness

- 13:00 EICR overview, visual inspections, level of inspection and test recommended and required to prove satisfactory, the Codes and guidance.
Everyone will complete ECIR and I will discuss each section as it is completed.
Test sheets and Z boxes
Photo exercise on 24 photos that each person will code
Review and discuss the level of coding applied.
15:30 Close

Plenty of opportunity to get your hands on and in consumer units and cables!

Open forum all the way through to answer questions

Handouts will be provided on the day these will consist of

- Course notes and images used in the presentations
- Metal Consumer Unit guide from Schneider
- EICR 4 Page Report to be completed
- 24 Photo exercise

Additional handouts will be sent via Email after the course with a summary to each handout. A Survey Monkey will be sent to each candidate about the course. Free Corporate Memberships which include free technical support will be offered to each authority/department.

5 hours CPD.