8. CIEH Ltd Warranties and Disclaimers

8.1 CIEH Ltd shall use reasonable skill and care in the performance of its obligations under these Terms. CIEH Ltd further warrants and represents that it has full capacity and authority to enter into these Terms.

8.2 Save as set out in clause 8.1 above, CIEH Ltd gives no warranty:

(a) as to the accuracy, completeness or suitability of the Product, and the Customer uses the Product at its own risk;

(b) that the Product shall be compatible with the Customer Systems other than those meeting the minimum technical specification.

8.3 To the fullest extent permissible by law all warranties, conditions or terms other than those expressly set out in these Terms are excluded, including but not limited to implied statutory conditions and warranties.

8.4 CIEH Ltd shall not be responsible for any loss or damage caused or alleged to have been caused, directly or indirectly, by the information or ideas contained, suggested or referenced in the Product.

8.5 As a convenience to the Customer, the CIEH Ltd websites may include links to sites on the open web and which are beyond its control. CIEH Ltd makes no representations as to the quality, suitability, functionality or legality of any sites to which the Product, CIEH Ltd websites or email alerts link, and the Customer waives any claim it may have against CIEH Ltd with respect to such sites.

9. Intellectual Property Rights Indemnity

9.1 Save as provided in clause 9.3, CIEH Ltd will, at its own expense, defend the Customer from and against any claims based on a claim that the Product infringes any copyright or issued patent in the European Union or incorporates any misappropriated trade secret and will pay any costs and damages finally awarded to the Customer in any such action or agreed by CIEH Ltd in any settlement attributable to such claim.

9.2 Save as provided in Clause 9.3, in addition to CIEH Ltd’s indemnity obligations under Clause 9.1, should the Customer’s use of the Product be determined to have infringed, or if, in CIEH Ltd’s reasonable judgement, be likely to infringe any Intellectual Property Rights, CIEH Ltd may at its option and expense:

(a) procure for the Customer the right to continue using the Product or the relevant part thereof; or

(b) replace or modify the Product or the relevant part thereof to make the Customer’s use non-infringing; or

(c) if neither option (a) nor (b) are or would be available on a basis that CIEH Ltd finds commercially reasonable, then CIEH Ltd may terminate these Terms and refund to the Customer any Fees paid under these Terms.

9.3 The indemnity under Clause 9.1 shall not apply to any allegation of infringement to the extent that it is due to third party products or services or to the Customer having used the Product (a) in a manner not contemplated by these Terms; or (b) in breach of these Terms.

9.4 The indemnity contained in Clause 9.1 is contingent upon: (a) the Customer promptly notifying CIEH Ltd in writing of any claim that may give rise to a claim for indemnification under clause 9.1; (b) CIEH Ltd being allowed to control the defence and settlement of such claim; (c) the Customer co-operating (at CIEH Ltd’s expense) with all reasonable requests by CIEH Ltd in defending or settling a claim, and (d) the Customer not having made or making an admission or settlement with the third party without CIEH Ltd’s prior written consent.

10. Support

10.1 During the Access Term, CIEH Ltd will support services to the Customer during the hours from 9.00am to 5.00pm on any day which is not a weekend or a public or bank holiday in the United Kingdom. The Customer must report any problems or errors in accordance with clause 10.1 above, giving full details of the problem or error and any other relevant information requested by CIEH Ltd.

10.2 The support services provided by CIEH Ltd under these Terms do not apply to:

(a) use of the Product contrary to CIEH Ltd’s instructions or these Terms; or

(b) defects caused by Customers’ negligence, fault or resulting from hardware malfunction or malfunction of other software or the Customer’s System or any cause other than the Product itself.
11. Confidentiality

11.1 Neither party shall disclose to any third party without the prior written consent of the other party any of the other party's Confidential Information. A party shall use Confidential Information received from the other only for the purposes of the proper performance of its obligations and exercise of its rights under these Terms.

11.2 Confidential Information shall not include any information which: (a) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of a breach of an obligation under this clause; (b) is acquired from a third party who owes no obligation of confidentiality in respect of the information; or (c) is or has been independently developed by the recipient or was known to it prior to receipt.

11.3 Notwithstanding clause 11.1 above, either party shall be entitled to disclose Confidential Information of the other: (a) to their respective insurers or legal advisors; (b) to a third party to the extent that this is required by any court of competent jurisdiction, or by a governmental or regulatory authority, provided that in the case of sub-clause (b) where reasonably practicable (and without breaching any legal or regulatory requirement) not less than 2 working days prior notice in writing is given to the other party.

12. Liability

12.1 A party shall accept liability without limit for (a) death or personal injury caused by its own negligence or the negligence of its employees acting in the course of their employment; (b) any fraudulent pre-contractual misrepresentations on which the other party can be shown to have relied; and (c) any other liability which by law cannot be excluded or limited.

12.2 Subject to clauses 12.1 and clauses 12.3, CIEH Ltd’s total liability to the Customer arising under or in connection with these Terms (save for liability under clause 9.1 which is uncapped), whether in contract, tort (including, without limitation, negligence), statute or otherwise shall not exceed the Fees paid by the Customer.

12.3 Neither party shall be liable to the other party for any indirect or consequential loss or damage, nor for loss of profit, goodwill, or business.

13. Termination

13.1 If CIEH Ltd reasonably suspects that the Customer is in breach of the Terms, CIEH Ltd may suspend the provision of the Product.

13.2 The exercise by CIEH Ltd of any right to suspend its provision of the Product or by either party to terminate the Terms shall not limit any other rights or remedies that party may have, and shall not affect any accrued rights or obligations arising before the date of termination.

13.3 The Terms may be terminated forthwith by either party in writing if the other party commits a material breach of these Terms and either (a) the breach is not capable of remedy or (b) the breach is capable of remedy and the breaching party has been advised in writing of the material breach but has not rectified the breach within 30 days of receipt of such notification.

14. Assignment

14.1 The Terms are personal to the Customer and the Customer may not assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations under the Terms to any third party without the prior written consent of CIEH Ltd.

15. Notices

15.1 All notices to be sent from one party to the other in connection with the Terms shall be delivered by hand, sent by post, or emailed to the address of the relevant party.

15.2 Notices sent by post shall be deemed to have been received two days after posting, otherwise notices shall be deemed to have been received on the next working day following transmission and in the case of service by email the party effecting service shall be required to prove that the notice has been served by the production of an appropriate email report.

16. Waiver

16.1 Failure by either party to exercise any right or remedy under these Terms shall not signify acceptance of the event giving rise to such right or remedy nor shall it constitute a waiver of such right or remedy, nor of any other right or remedy.

16.2 No waiver of a breach of any terms of these Terms or of a default under these Terms shall be effective unless in writing, signed by or on behalf of the parties and expressed to be such a waiver.

17. Severance
Each provision of the Terms is severable from the rest of the Terms and, if one part should be found to be invalid, illegal or void for any reason, it shall not affect the validity or legality of any other part, and the remaining parts shall continue to have full force and effect.

18. Entire Terms
These Terms form the entire agreement between the parties in respect of the subject matter of these Terms.

19. Rights of Third Parties
A person who is not a contracting party to these Terms shall have no right to enforce any term of these Terms under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party which exists or is available apart from that act.

20. Variations
No variation of these Terms shall be effective unless made in writing, signed by or on behalf of each of the parties and expressed to be such a variation.

21. No Partnership
These Terms shall not operate so as to create a partnership or joint venture of any kind between the parties. Nothing contained in these Terms shall be so construed as to constitute either party to be the agent of the other. Neither party shall have any authority to make any commitments on the other party’s behalf.

22. Governing Law and Jurisdiction
The Terms shall be construed in accordance with and governed by English Law and shall be subject to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts.
