

London Hub

London Food and Health & Safety Study Group (CPD)

6 February 2020, 09:30 to 16:30

Venue: Holiday Inn London – Camden Lock, 30 Jamestown Road, London, NW1 7BY

Registration from 09:30am

Welcome by London Hub volunteers and Alana Briggs, the new Network Manager, CIEH

Policy update, including the CIEH Primary Authority survey, Ellie Whitlock, Policy and Public Affairs Executive, CIEH

The London Food Coordinating Group and PHE FWEM Laboratory survey on 'pink duck', presented by Dr Sandra Lai, Unit Head of the Food Water & Environmental Microbiology Laboratory, Public Health England, and Peter Brett, Team Manager - Commercial Environmental Health, City of London

An update from FSA Wales - FHRS and online display in Wales, presented by Jayne Griffiths, Local Authority Partnership Officer, FSA

Gas Safety in Commercial Kitchens, presented by David Tobin (or colleague), Gas Safe

The FSA's National Inspection Strategy initiative and working as Primary Authority for Morrisons, presented by Helen Atkinson, Wakefield City Council, Winner of the 2019 Regulatory Excellence Award

Trampoline Park Safety, presented by Gill Twell, Right Directions

We are also expecting Navitas Group to join us, presenting on a topical food safety issue.

Close at 16:30

A buffet lunch, tea, coffee and biscuits during breaks, and water will be provided.

CPD will be issued following the event.

To book your place visit <https://www.cieh.org/events/2020/member-forum/london-hub-food-and-safety-study-day/>

We look forward to welcoming you all