Join 8,000 environmental health professionals today and get exclusive access to career-changing benefits.

- 1 Boost your career: Gain new professional skills and knowledge. Our membership grades allow you also get to use designatory letters (eg MCIEH) after your name – an instant badge of competence for clients, colleagues and future employers.
- 2 Make the right contacts: Get access to a powerful network of fellow environmental health experts. Through our Regional Hubs, and sector-specific Communities, you can make valuable connections with like-minded practitioners.
- 3 Have your say: Make your voice count. We work for our members on the issues that matter most in environmental health. That means you can help shape our policy and campaigns, and make sure we're addressing the things you care about.
- 4 Find practical support: Unlock a host of practical tools and guidance to support your work, including webinars, events, practice guides and briefings. Plus a free subscription to EHN magazine – packed with useful articles and case studies.
- 5 Save money: Save up to £200 on CIEH conferences and training courses and £600 on CIEH professional assessments. Get access to discounts on everything from CV services to professional indemnity insurance.

Anyone can join CIEH, at any stage in their career. Annual membership fees start at just £66. Join us today:
