

CIEH AI and Tech Conference: Empowering Efficient Services

Half-day conference: Friday 4th July 2025

09.30 Registration and online login

09.45 Welcome and introduction

Chair: Mark Elliott CenvH FCIEH, President, Chartered Institute of Environmental Health (CIEH)

09.35 Keynote Session: AI: The risks, rewards & readiness

- Outlining the risks and rewards for LA's of using AI
- Discuss the LGA's consultation on a pro-innovation approach to AI regulation

Speaker: TBC

10:10 Evaluation of AI and Potential role in Public Health

- Case study: Exploring role that artificial intelligence (AI) could play in the future, helping scientists to detect and investigate foodborne illness outbreaks. Targeting and identifying investigations
- Advances in Large Language Models (LLMs) & automated evaluations of LLMs for public health tasks

Speaker: TBC

10.35 Meet the AI experts: Panel discussion

Speaker(s): TBC

11.15 Comfort break & sponsorship videos

11.30 TBC

12:00 Remote Inspections – challenges and opportunities

Speaker: TBC

12:35 New technologies: case study of effective efficiency

Speaker: Russell Moffatt, Meta Street

13:15 TBC

13.40 Closing remarks

13.45 End of conference

Sponsored by

