

CIEH Air Quality Conference

Half-day conference: Friday 30 January 2026

09.15 Registration and online login

09.30 Welcome and introduction

Chair: Matthew Clark, Programme Manager – Air Quality, Hertfordshire County Council

09.35 Keynote: exploring statutory directions and the Air Quality Information System Review

- Further information about the Air Quality Information System Review and Local Air Quality Management: statutory directions

Speaker: TBC

10:05 Consultation on draft regulations to implement fine particulate matter (PM<sub>2.5</sub>) air quality targets

Speaker: John Griffiths, Welsh Government

10:35 Using the UKHSA data dashboard as a tool for managing air quality

Speaker: UKHSA representative (TBC)

11:00 Comfort break & sponsorship videos

11.15 Special focus: Latest on wood burning

- Mapping residential wood burning and its effects on lung health - Dr Laura Horsfall, Principal Research Fellow – Clinical Epidemiology, University College London
- Global action plan and recent research – TBC

12:00 The health impact of Bradford Metropolitan Borough Council's CAZ

- Post low emission zone production

Speaker: Sally Jones, Pollution Control Officer, Bradford Metropolitan District Council

12:35 Case study: The Inhabit Hub and how retrofitting homes can benefit air quality and health

- More information on the Inhabit Hub and further information around gas cooking, raising awareness of the dangers to public health and air quality in smaller homes

Speaker: Dr Suzanne Bartington, Clinical Associate Professor in Environmental Health, University of Birmingham

13:15 Roundup with UKRI: critical health and environmental impacts

- Toxicological impacts, internal concentrations etc.

Speaker: Clean Air Programme representative (TBC)

13.40 Closing remarks

13.45 End of conference