

CIEH Public Protection in Public Spaces

Wednesday 29 September 2021, Online Conference

09:30 Registration, and system check

09.45 Welcome and introduction

Chair: Eric Stuart, Director, Gentian Events Limited and Chair, UKCMA

10.00 Manchester Arena inquiry volume one findings

Eric Stuart, Director, Gentian Events Limited and Chair, UKCMA

- Hear the findings from volume one of public inquiry into the attack on Manchester Arena
- Assess the learning outcomes, the observations, and recommendations about the regulatory framework

10.40 Publicly Accessible Locations

Steve McGrath, Detective Chief Inspector Head of National Counter Terrorism Security Office

- Assess how legislation could be used to enhance the protection and safety of public spaces and other publicly accessible locations
- Hear a reference to the Protect Duty consultation

11.20 Break

11.30 Infection control at large events

Paul Scott, Safety Expert, Northern Ireland

- Looking at how the industry is adapting to live with COVID

12.00 Panel Discussion: Pipeline shortages the concerns and challenges

Chris Hall, Director, A.C.T. (National) Ltd

Dan Criag, Director of Operations, Superstuct

Anne Marie, Managing Director of Select Security and Stewarding Ltd. and the Secretary of the United Kingdom Crowd Management Association (UKCMA)

- Understand the health and safety risks caused by the pipeline storage
- Assess how the industry is managing to cope with severe staffing and equipment shortages

12.40 New ways of working with Local Authority Public Health

Esther Hughes, Team Leader Consumer Protection, Public Protection, Enfield Council

Glenn Stewart, Assistant Director for Public Health, Enfield Council

- Hear how SAGs have been working with Public health England to reduce the impact and spread of the coronavirus

13.10 Closing remarks

13.15 Event Feedback form