

Day 1: Tuesday 24 May 2022

09.15 Registration and online login

09.30 Welcome and introduction

Chair: Ellis Turner, Senior Lecturer Environmental Health, University of West of England

09.40 Levelling Up: the implications for housing

Speaker: Grace Duffy, Head of Quality & Non-Traditional Tenures, Private Rented Sector, DLUHC

10.15 Homelessness Prevention: presented by Shelter

Speaker: Deborah Garvie, Policy Manager, Shelter

10.35 Next Steps to Net Zero in PRS: how do we navigate the energy crisis in the short term? Panel discussion

Panellists:

- David Smith, Partner, JMW Solicitors LLP
- Peter Smith, Director of Policy and Advocacy, National Energy Action (NEA)
- Deborah Garvie, Policy Manager, Shelter
- Anees Mank, Chartered Environmental Health Practitioner

11.25 Comfort break and sponsorship videos

11.45 Levelling Up and disparities in housing conditions

Speaker: Caroline Hughes, Senior Consultant, BRE

12:10 HHSRS Review update: where are we?

Speaker: Alison Thomas, Senior Housing Consultant, RHE Global

12:30 Caroline and Alison – Joint Q&A

12:35 Tackling Rogue Landlords:

- Brent initiatives
Speaker: Tony Jemmott, Private Housing Manager, Private Housing Services, Brent Council
- Advice For Renters project work on the challenges of MEES regulations
- MEES: The impact of regulation vulnerable households
Speaker: Nicola McMullen, Energy & Environment Co-ordinator, Advice For Renters

13.05 How best to engage residents in public consultations

- Using recent case studies, to outline different ways to engage residents, landlords and organisations, including which approaches work and which don't, and discuss what future consultations will look like.

Speaker: Adam Knight-Markiegi, Research & Evaluation Director, M.E.L Research

13:20 Tony, Nicola and Adam – Joint Q&A

13.30 Close

Key sponsors:

